

AILA-UMI PRIZE FRANCO MONTAGNA for a PhD Thesis in Mathematical Logic and Applications

The AILA (Italian Association of Logic and its Applications) and UMI (Italian Mathematical Union) announce a prize of 2,000 Euros, dedicated to the memory of Franco Montagna, for a PhD thesis on topics related to Mathematical Logic and its applications. In accordance with its Regulation (<http://www.ailalogica.it/premi/premio-montagna.pdf> and http://umi.dm.unibo.it/wp-content/uploads/2016/02/PREMIO\_AILA-UMI\_Montagna.pdf ) the Prize is awarded to a PhD doctor who graduated defending a doctoral thesis on topics Mathematical Logic in the three years from 1 January 2014 until 31 December 2016.

Applications, and candidatures by academic bodies, research institutions, scientific academies, or individual experts (according to Article 2 of the Regulation) must be submitted by 31 December 2016 at the AILA Presidency (aila@unicam.it), which shall promptly inform the UMI Presidency.

Applications must contain the following information:

- name, surname and e-mail address of the candidate,
- the PhD where the thesis was submitted,
- date of its discussion,
- name, surname and e-mail address of the thesis supervisor.

The following has to be attached in pdf format:

- copy of the thesis (even in a provisional version),
- summary of the thesis of at most 5 pages,
- letter of recommendation from the thesis supervisor,
- any scientific communications of the thesis topics and any publications extracted from the thesis,
- any additional recommendation letters.

The prize, indivisible, will be awarded by a commission of 5 members, including two appointed by the AILA Board on a proposal from the AILA Presidency, 3 by the UMI Scientific Committee on a proposal from the UMI Presidency Board.

The Commission, appointed by January 31, 2017, designates its President among its members.

Commission decisions can be taken by majority vote, and as for the merit, are unquestionable. The Commission will work electronically. In the absence of adequate scientific applications or candidature, the Commission may decide not to award the prize.

The Commission concludes its work by April 30, 2017, drawing up a final report, explaining the reasons of its conclusions and mentioning a maximum of two other candidates considered particularly deserving.

The report is published on AILA and UMI sites and UMI Newsletter.

The award ceremony takes place on the occasion of the XXVI Meeting AILA, Padova, September 2017.

For more information ask by e-mail the AILA Presidency (aila@unicam.it).
