

Special Session 23 - “Mathematical connections between Italy and Brazil. The circulation of Italian scholars in Latin America and the foundation of the first Brazilian universities”

Building: Rettorato

Room: Accademia Peloritana dei Pericolanti

Thursday, 10 September
14:30 – 14:50	Luciana Vieira Luigi Fantappiè, mathematics, and fascism in Brazil: when science diplomacy is not synonymous with cooperation (1934-1939)
14:50 – 15:10	Maria Giulia Lugaresi From INAC to Brazil, Luigi Sobrero and the teaching of Mathematical Physics in Rio de Janeiro
15:10 – 15:30	Maria Anna Raspanti Giacomo Albanese and the Italian Mission in Brazil
15:30 – 15:50	Maria Alessandra Vaccaro A review of Gabriele Mammana’s teaching and research activities between Italy and Brazil
15:50 – 16:10	Elena Scalambro An Italian voice in Brazil: the trajectory of Achille Bassi (1907-1973)
16:10 – 16:30	Marina Marchisio Conte Shaping topology across borders: Gino Fano and Achille Bassi in dialogue (1926-1945)