

International Prize
“ENRICO MAGENES”
Announcement

The Italian Mathematical Union, in collaboration with the Department of Mathematics “Felice Casorati” of the University of Pavia, the Institute of Applied Mathematics and Information Technology IMATI-CNR “Enrico Magenes”, the Laboratory for Modeling and Scientific Computing MOX of Politecnico di Milano, students, colleagues and friends of Enrico Magenes, invites applications for the International Prize “Enrico Magenes” 2023 amounting to 8.000 Euro and also including three years of U.M.I. membership. The prize is awarded for outstanding achievements in the field of Analysis, either Theoretical or Numerical, of Differential Models and their Applications.

The prize is open to any person born since January 1, 1978. The date of birth is conventionally increased by one year for each child (or for each parental leave), or for each leave for health reasons of more than 6 months.

The Prize Committee will be designated by the Scientific Committee of the Italian Mathematical Union. The Prize Committee will also take into account nominations proposed by members of Research Institutions, Scientific Academies, and Universities.

Applications and nominations should include a Curriculum Vitae with the birth date of the candidate, with the list of publications and a description of the work that qualifies the candidate for the award, with references to the most important papers of the candidate.

Applications and nominations should be sent by email in pdf format to

Presidente dell’Unione Matematica Italiana
email: dipmat.umi@unibo.it

The closing date for applications and nominations is February 28, 2023.

The prize will be awarded during the opening ceremony of the XXII Congress of the Italian Mathematical Union, Pisa. Afterwards, the winner is expected to deliver a lecture for the Colloquium Magenes in Pavia.

The announcement and the complete set of rules of the prize are published on the web site of the Italian Mathematical Union
